

Features

28 June 2024

11:31

Features

A feature is an input variable—the  $x$  variable in simple linear regression. A machine learning project might use a single feature, while a machine learning project could use millions of features, such as in image recognition.

ear regression. A simple e a more sophisticated pecified as: